III. Identification

A. Hospital-Based Programs

Note: Only answer this section if you are affiliated with a hospital-based program.

JRCERT Policy and USDE Regulations require all site visit teams to have members who meet certain criteria. For hospital-based programs that are not accredited by another academic agency, the JRCERT serves as an institutional accreditor therefore the team must consist of an academician and an administrator.

Academician: Someone currently or recently directly engaged in a significant manner in postsecondary teaching and/or research.

- I meet the definition of an academician.
- I do not meet the definition of an academician.

Administrator: Someone currently or recently directly engaged in a significant manner in postsecondary program or institutional administration.

- I meet the definition of an administrator.
- I do not meet the definition of an administrator.

B. College/University – Based Programs

Note: Only answer this section if you are affiliated with a college/university – based program.

JRCERT Policy and USDE Regulations require all site visit teams to have members who meet certain criteria. For college/university-based programs, the JRCERT serves as a programmatic accreditor therefore the site visit team must consist of an educator and a practitioner.

Educator: Someone currently or recently directly engaged in a significant manner in postsecondary education in an education capacity (e.g., professor, instructor, academic dean).

- I meet the definition of an educator.
- I do not meet the definition of an educator.

C. All Program Types – Practitioner Status

JRCERT Policy requires at least one site visitor per team to be designated as a practitioner.

Practitioner: The JRCERT defines a practitioner as an individual who, on average, provides or oversees services to patients in a healthcare setting a minimum of eight (8) hours per week.

- I meet the definition of a practitioner.
- I do not meet the definition of a practitioner.

D. All Program Types – Distance Education Experience

JRCERT Policy requires at least one site visitor per team to be designated as experienced in distance education for any program using distance education delivery of four (4) or more courses.

Distance Education Experience: To be classified as a site visitor with distance education experience, you must document development and implementation of a distance education course(s) or have a graduate degree specific to or concentration in distance education methodologies. The completion of a degree program via DE methodology is not adequate to meet this criterion.

- I meet this criterion.
- I do not meet this criterion.

If you meet this minimum criterion, please provide more information regarding your current level of involvement in the distance delivery of educational courses. Describe course development and facilitation of DE course(s). Describe any professional development you have obtained specific to DE delivery and/or development. Finally, describe the DE course(s)/delivery of the courses within your current program including how many courses of the total curriculum are delivered via distance technology.

NOTE: This explanation of your DE experience could also be described in your letter of application (see next section).

Description of DE Experience:

IV. Writing Sample

Consistent with Site Visitor Procedure 90.303C as well as expectations of a site visit team, team members (apprentice, members, and chairs) must apply sound reasoning, employ problem-solving skills, communicate effectively, and collect and evaluate data among other attributes. To gain insight into your specific knowledge, skills and/or research interests, you must submit a type of writing sample, either in response to a subject below, recent ( $\leq 5$  years old) refereed publication as sole or first author, or paper submitted during your baccalaureate or graduate degree program ( $\leq 5$  years old).

- I have attached a copy of a recent refereed publication.
- I have attached a copy of a paper submitted during baccalaureate or graduate degree program.
- I have attached a letter of application detailing the following:

Describe relevant experience that would serve of benefit to a JRCERT peer review team. Describe any experience with institutional/programmatic accreditation, curricular design/review, evaluation/assessment, leadership, professional practice, etc. What makes you a great candidate for a JRCERT peer reviewer?

Note: Letter of Application: Minimum words - 200 words; Maximum words - 600 words.

V. Conflict of Interest

JRCERT policy requires members of the site visit team to be conscious of real or perceived conflict of interest in the performance of their responsibilities. Policy prohibits an individual serving as a site visitor for an institution or a program if you currently or recently have been an appointee, employee, recent (within 5 years) graduate of, consultant to, or hold a financial interest in the institution or program. Additionally, an individual serving as a site visitor must not have immediate relatives who are appointees, employees, recent (within 5 years) graduates, or hold a financial interest in the institution or program.

I attest that as a potential member of the site visit team, I will abide by the JRCERT conflict of interest policy.
